yesterday that General Manone had determined not to put any money into the ands of his friends in the city and county of Alexandria. This is a straw which shows which way the wind blows. It means that the Democratic neminee for the House of Delegates can't be beaten. The Democrats may learn a lesson from MAHONE. The fact stated above indicates that he is going to make a desperate effort to carry the Legislature. He would rather be United States senator than Governor. Or perhaps we should say that he knows that he cannot possibly be elected Governor, and therefore has determined to use all his time, talents, and money in the effort to carry the Legislature. In order party to take care of themselves, and will | the organization of the House. throw his whole supply of "boodle" into the doubtful counties.

MARONE said to Colonel RUFFIN some methods he expects to carry Virginia next sand people. month. There are at least twenty counties and cities in which the Democratic ma jority was so small at the election of last year that they must be classed among the doubtful ones. If the two parties should divide the delegates from the other counties and cities equally between them, each party would have forty members of the House of Delegates. Now add twenty to either party's strength and this party would have a majority of twenty in the House of Delegates; and these twenty dele-House of Delegates; and these twenty delegates may be elected each by a majority of only one hundred votes. In 1879 Manore elected to the Legislature by majorities less than a hundred a relatively large number of members. "Large streams from little fountains flow." If the counties giving those small majorities had been secured by the Democrats Manore's hands.

He would never have been elected to the United States which he framed and ordered them to enact into laws.

But to secure a majority in the case supposed, it would not be necessary for either party to get more than eleven of the twenty depends of the consistency of the deven counties and cities. Now, supposing Manox's estimate to be correct, and $200,000 be enought money to carry the whole State of Virginia either way, then thirty thousand dollars would suffice to enable him to carry the eleven counties or election districts which he must carry in order to secure a majority in the House of Delegates. Be ure, ye members of the State Democratia single to have been accounted and discouraged way upon the surface.

It causes a good deal of amusement here. Of course the Democratis and the Manoxe is single to have been contained. The first time I was asked by a Good Templar a high official in the order. After questioning my temperance record "Good Templars," It would have seen stopping here for soveral weeks, again to see may matter for "Good Templars." It would have been an easy matter for "Good Templars," It would have been accounted with the case of the consistency of party, or a wheat biscuit an inch thick, which cats off like cutting a section of old the case. A principal dish is called Boaton baked beans. It bears about as much resemblence to genuine Beston baked beans, as boiled dog does to canvas-back duck. It is a bowl of sloppy mess of the consistency of ordinary soup, the surface covered with a heavy coating of hog-fat boiled out of the clunk of sow-belly which floats in an attenuated and discouraged way upon the surface."

We can say with confidence that it is next to impossible for Manone to secure control of the State Senate, and exceedingly improbable that he will secure the House of Delegates. But after all grand victories never come to those who do not work for them. If we would ward of danger we must know whence it may be expected to come.

What of the Organization?

We repeat our question of a few days ago, What of the organization? The prospect for a Democratic victory was never and the repeat of the organization? The property for a Democratic victory was never brighter. The State Democratic Executive Committee have done their duty in pushing the canvase as regards ultiling the services of our speakers. The speakers have done their duty, and it may be said they have lighted the watchfires of Democracy on every hillips in the State. But what has been accomplished in towns, villages, and magisterial districts in the way of rendering the work of the committee and of the speakers the more effective? Are the Democratic hosts owell in hand as respects organization that the result of the battle of November the thick can be predicted withsabolute certainty? This is a question that every Domocrat should ask himself. The enthusians of this campaign has never been surpassed. But it should be remembered that enthusiasm alone is not a guarantee of success. On the contary, in a political content it too often breeds that most subtle of dangers, over-confidence. We cannot affort to take anything for granted in this content. The political fate not only of Virginia but of the entire South depends upon the outcome. That fact is recognized through out the country by Republican as well as by Democratic papers. The Philadelphia Telegraph has heard of Manone's worst circular. It says:

"Mahone, it seems, is now adding sacrilege to his other grievous public offences. His latest extraordinary move in Virginia is to pose as the Joshua who is to lead the negre race to earthly glory. Modesty has hone's characteristics, but when he undertakes of figure in the character of a great probet he will find that he cannot command the sun of prosperity to stand still and shine upon him. This would seem to be a good time for Brother Jaspet to come to the front again and demonstrate, for the length of the front again and demonstrate, for the length of the front again and demonstrate, for the length of the delivered counties in the State.

FABER'S MILLS, NELSON COUNTY, VA., February 15, 1886,
I was afflicted with a severe Cancer on my neck just over the main artery, back of the ear. It had been stanting for several years, and during the last twelve months became very paloful and grew rapidly worse. Through the advice of a friend who knew Dr. A. G. Wolland, I applied to him and committed myself to his treatment. I am happy to be able to state that he has made a perfect cure of it, only a very small scar remaining, and I now feel entirely relieved. I meet heartily recommend him to all who are afflicted with Cancer. Most respectfully, WILLIAM H. PAMPLIN.

I know Mr. Pamplin, who gives this certificate, intimately; saw the condition of his neck often before the treatment, and have seen him frequently since his care. I know him to be a most reliable gentleman, and know his certificate to be correct in every particular. Respectfully, Pastor Broad-Street Methodist church.

RICHMOND, VA., February 15, 1886.

More than twelve months ago I had on my under lip an obstinate sore, which continued to grow larger and more painful every week. I and my friends became anarmed at the situation and stubbornness of the sore, which seemed to be fast developing as a Cancer. I was induced to apply to Dr. A. G. Wellard for treatment. His invaluable remedy has been satisfactorily successful in my case. Nothing is left of the sore but a small cicalist, and even that seems to be gradually disappearing. I have not hesitated, nor do I now hesitate, to advise to others similarly affected to apply to Dr. A. G. Wollard, of Richmond, Va., for treatment.

In a public speech he asserts that I am ashamed to meet him in open debate. Yes, I confess I am ashamed to meet him anywhere. He also charges that I am an atheist! That, too, is true to this extent: I never doubted the existence of God until I saw Beveridge, and the moment he escapes out of life I shall return to my former belief.

Dr. A. G. Wollard:

Dear Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to state to you that the cancerous tumor that I had on my breast is eatherly well. The cure being made for quite a number of mouths, I have no fears of its return. Now, let me say to the public, the cancer made its appearance some three or four years ago, and still continued to grow until it was near the size of a hear's egg. It was located on my breast near the centre. I had the best medical aid i could find, but found no relief till I applied to Dr. A. G. Wollard, of Richmons, who made a perfect cure. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Wollard to all who may be afflicted in a similar way. I can be seen at the corner of Sims and Eleventh streets, Manchester, Va.

This is to certify that I suffered with a cancer on my nose of two years' standing. It was quite large, covering nearly the entire side of my nose. It was pronounced cancer by several paysicians. It was cored by Dr. A. G. Woltard, of Richmond, Va., and now it has been well for some six menths of more, and it leaves but very little scar. I can recommend the Dortor to all who may suffer with such diseases.

Dr. A. G. Wollard:

My Dear Sir.—About the year 1877 a small lump appeared on my right cheek, which very slowly increased in size, and from which there was a sight but constant discharge. It was not painful, but was quite disagreeable. In the year 1882 it commenced eating very slowly upward on the face, leaving an open ulcer, which was very offensive, and in 1881 sharp, darting pains were frequent, and it was astiming a malignant character. It was then that I applied to Dr. Wollard, of Richmond, Va., who told me it was a rose cancer. He commenced this treatment of my case about the 23d day of January, 1853, and his plaster remained on there until the 18th day of May, 1858, when it came off, slaving a slight sear. It is now about two years since it came off, and is now perfectly well and a perfect cure. With a grateful heart, I give you this, my certificate, and truss that any yoor sufferer who may see this may call upon you and be healed also. May God, in its mercy, bless, trotect, and defend you from all harm, and suffer you even in your old age to live long that you may bring health and happiness to thousands of sufferers, is the prayer of your grateful friend.

Gentiemen.— this is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from Liver Complaint for several years, I determined to try your justify-celebrated Vegetable Nolandine, and after using several bottles I find myself so much benefited that I have decontinued the use of it. My liver is now in better condition than It has been in many years, and can now eat anything I want without any fear of suffering from indigestion consequent upon a diseased liver. I carnessly and cheerfully recommend it to all persons suffering from either of the above complaints. You are at perfect liberty to use this as you may feel disposed.
